

20 Jul 88

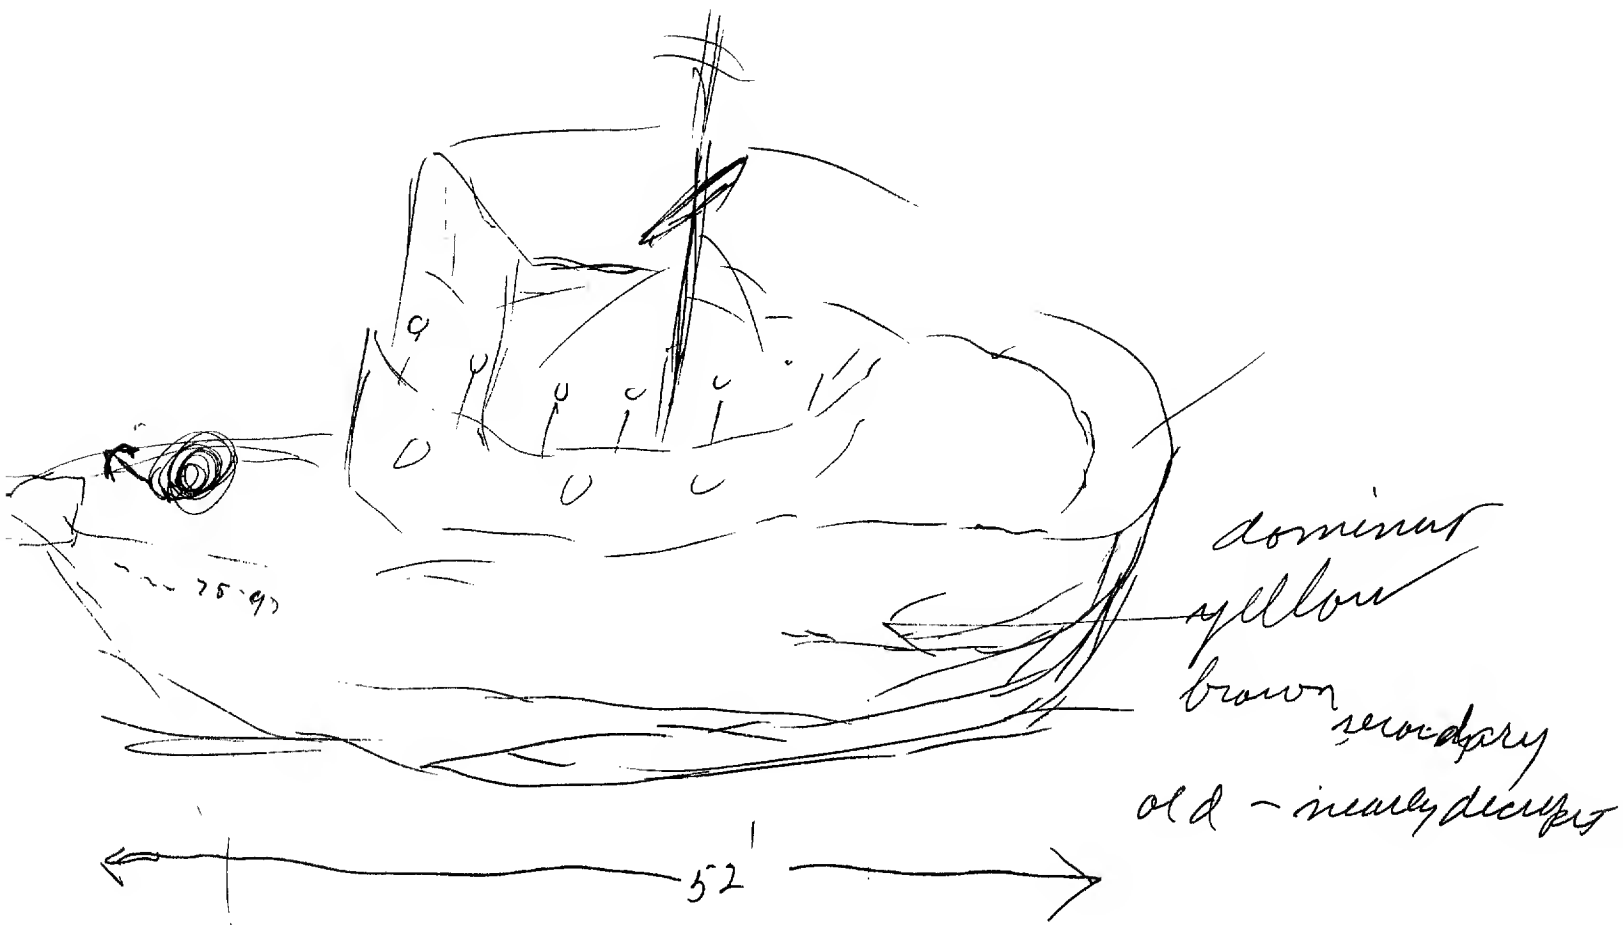

9 QTS-7
072

- Old, decrepit, predominantly yellow and brown <sup>tinge</sup> appearing vessel of about 52' ft in length - fishing boat - smells dirty.
- appeared to be a crew of 5-6 males
- Name ends in " - - - OX " ; reminiscent of a Greek word as in "Xeborok"
- attempts to surface registry number indicates "R-1575-90."
- drugs in a <sup>off wall</sup> roll stashed on port side in the cabin - appears to be some form of hashish.

canvas ~~tarp~~
material

- heading - northwest to unload
- loaded <sup>overnight</sup> from <sup>passing</sup> mother ship phonetically identified as "Prim Rose" predominant black hull, white superstructure

Registry no.

R-1575-90

5-6 small on board

None ends in --- 0X

